The chapters can be treated as stand alone. The book talks about the modern idols in our lives and how we try to defend God. Some times our own explanation of God maybe a very wrong representation of the true living God. The book discusses 8 'gods' which we and everyone around us takes for idols and how and why they fail us.

Democracy, the God that Failed - Livro Democracy, The God

God calls us to work hard. But success can be an idol when it becomes the controlling factor that drives our lives and the thing we base our self worth on. This is true whether you achieve or fail in life. It's not the result it's what is driving you. The person who fails can be even more driven by this idol than the person who succeeds.
